Mediating Homelessness Through Music

The Mission:
In an attempt to better understand homelessness and how it affects individuals and efforts to create a society in which the participants in this project adopted a variety of approaches from creating music to teaching a theme, a diverse array of focus areas emerged. In exploring the cause of homelessness and the experience of homelessness, music projects to be a very rich and fascinating medium for examination. Ties of personal experience, songs for change and music, the music is a tool, a personal unique insight into how individuals perceive homelessness and society's role in addressing it.
