

ANAK SOCIETY

Georgia School of Technology

Atlanta, Georgia

November 22, 1935.

Dear Brother Giant:

At the last meeting of the alumni and undergraduate members of Anak Society, last June, it was decided to have the annual reunion banquet the night of the Tech-Georgia football game which will be played November 30th.

We will meet in the private dining room of the Robert Fulton Hotel at seven o'clock Saturday evening following the game, and the dinner will be served promptly at 7:15. The cost per individual will be $1.50.

Every effort should be made to attend this reunion, not only because of the renewal of valued friendships of your undergraduate days but also because Tech's greatest Home Coming program has been arranged for the Thanksgiving week-end.

In order to obtain a proper estimate and to consummate plans, will you kindly inform us immediately if you will be present at this reunion?

Please address all replies and requests for information to:

Allen Morris, Secretary,
Anak Society,
Ga. Tech. Y.M.C.A.,
Atlanta, Ga.

Yours Sincerely,

Allen Morris, Secretary
Anak Society.
