

Institute Update

President Wayne Clough

Georgia Tech Foundation

September 6, 2002

Enrollment picture is strong

- 2,234 freshmen
 - 1336 average SAT score
 - 3.8 average GPA (of 4.0)
- 16,402 total enrollment
 - 15,815 here in Atlanta
 - Others in southeast Georgia, Singapore, Metz, Paris, or online

First MBA awarded on August 2

Faculty attract accolades

Eugene Comiskey & Charles Mulford:
Book on detecting deceptive accounting puts them in spotlight.

Eleanor Alexander's Lyrics of Sunshine and Shadow on the cover of the August 18 New York Times Book Review.

13 young faculty win NSF CAREER Awards,
tying Georgia Tech's prior record for one year.

Research continues to set records

- $320 m research expenditures for FY 02
- $279 m in awards (up from $237 m)
- $20 m from NIH for 3 biomedical engineering projects

Rodney Weber presented this new technology for testing air pollution at the American Chemical Society's 224th national meeting, Aug 22.

Celebrating 50 years of women at Georgia Tech

- Female enrollment increased from 24% to 28% over past decade, but has been flat for several years.
- Female faculty increased from 11% to 16% over past decade.

Improving the Institute

- New Strategic Plan
- Campus safety
 - Director of Campus Security
 - Emergency planning for all events and every aspect of campus life
- Academic accountability
 - Honor Code violations in computing resolved
 - Task Force recommendations implemented to improve system for future
- Greek system
 - New Greek Master Plan
 - Fall Greek forum

Athletics launches a new year

New season, new coach, new stadium: Tech beats
Vandy 45-3 at sell-out opener

Volleyball team features 8 returning letterwinners and several promising freshmen

Buildings are going up

Technology Square

Buildings are coming down

Hightower Building

Buildings are opening

Ford Motor Company Environmental Science & Technology Building

Finishing touches, moving in during fall semester.
Open for business in January.

Revenue and budget

- ↑ Tuition revenues up
- ↑ Formula support up
- ↑ Research revenue up
- ↓ State support down
- ↓ Foundation support down
- ↑ Bottom line: Net is up, but proceed with caution

GWC activities – Georgia Tech and beyond

- President's Council of Advisors on Science and Technology (PCAST)
- Waco Forum on the U.S. Economy
- Markle Foundation - National Security in an Information Age
- Chair - NAE Project "The Engineer in 2020"
- NCAA Board of Directors
- Chair - Mayor's Clean Water Advisory Panel