You may not realize it, but the Library can help meet most of your entertainment and scholarly needs. We have a growing collection of popular reading titles and DVDs available for checkout in the Library East Commons (LEC). We can also help you obtain all the books you need for your research. If we don't own what you're looking for, the GIL Express service allows requests for books from other public universities in Georgia, and ILLiad can help you obtain harder-to-find books and journal articles. You can even go directly to many local private institutions to borrow books. Just stop by the Circulation Desk for more information on any of these services.

We also have a growing collection of multimedia technologies available for either class or personal use. The Library offers point-and-shoot style digital cameras, laptops, and a full range of gadgets and A/V accessories, including tripods, peripheral cables, calculators, digital voice recorders, projectors, webcams, three different types of digital video camcorders, and more. For more information on any of these items, to see a full list with checkout time frames, please visit our website at :
