

Atlanta Georgia,
March. 2 A- 1914.

Dear Mr. Wink:

I hope you will spare
a few minutes of your time, and read this.

I know you are a friend to me
or anyone else who appreciates your friendship. Mr. Wink I don't know whether you know why
I quit working over there or not.

I was out sick and when I went back to work Mr. Baker wanted to fire me, but I insisted upon working a notice, so he let me.

I have heard it was because I belong to the union. I'll admit that I join the union but only went twice and I wasn't belonging to it when Mr.
Baker make me quit.

I'm just a poor working girl & I have to earn my own living. I certainly will appreciate it if you will give me a position, I can make $8. 00 a week easily sewing, where I have to work great deal harder anywhere else for $6. 00.

I see my mistake in joining the union, for they havent help me any at all, only helped me to lose my position!

Hoping to receive a favorable reply at once, I remain

Your Sincere Friend
Cleo Breedlove.

P.S. Mr. Denk you can let me know by Mattie my little sister, she works after school.
