Curious about Georgia Tech history? Students are welcome to visit the Georgia Tech Archives, located in the Library Annex, between the Library and the Hinman Building. Hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 9am to 5pm. The Archives holds a wealth of unique and rare materials relating to the history of Georgia Tech, including publications, photographs, architectural drawings, artifacts, administrative records, records of campus organizations, and the papers of Tech students, faculty, and alumni. The Archives also collects the records of historic textile mills in Georgia, and it holds one of the largest collections of science fiction books in the nation. Visit the Archives website at: <http://www.library.gatech.edu/archives/> or call 404-894-4586 for more information.
